

Partnerships

LUTZ & GRUB AG is MICROSOFT Gold Partner. The certification as Microsoft Gold Certified Partner guarantees our customers that the quality of our services is validated according to internationally valid guidelines thereof.

LUTZ & GRUB AG is accredited trainings partner on behalf of EXIN international with respect to carrying out ITIL Foundation certifications.

Cert-IT GmbH is the certification body for the areas IT and education. LUTZ & GRUB AG is certified according to AZWV.

LUTZ & GRUB is a member of the Association for Project Management (Gesellschaft für Projektmanagement e.V) and authorized for certification procedures within the framework of the level

Certified Project Management Associate according to the standards of the International Project Management Association (IPMA).

LUTZ & GRUB AG is a member of the Software-Cluster (decorated in the clusters of excellence contest on behalf of the Federal Government) in the south-western area of Germany. In the cities of Darmstadt, Karlsruhe, Kaiserslautern, Saarbrücken and Walldorf universities, corporate businesses and research facilities are collaborating very closely on this behalf.

LUTZ & GRUB AG is member of the International Association of Microsoft Channel Partners, German Chapter.

The International Association of Microsoft Channel Partners – short IAMCP – is a world-wide operating, independent cooperation of certified Microsoft partners.

LUTZ & GRUB AG is participant of the "Allianz für Cyber-Sicherheit".

The German alliance for cyber security, called: "Allianz für Cyber-Sicherheit" was founded by the federal office for security in information technology (BSI) in cooperation with the federal association information technology, telecommunications and new media (BITKOM).